Contact: Ni Huang -- nihuang@umfilms.org

This year, Universe Multicultural Film Festival (UMFF) is proud to present a select group of 13 full length and 2 short films representing Chinese variety geography and cultural heritage. Each film in its unique way illuminates a special and fundamental aspect of life as it's lived in China. They share a profound respect for their people's struggles, triumphs and the importance of the cultures.

A delegation of Chinese film makers, actors, producers and studio heads will attend the UMFF to support their productions. All films will be premiered to American audiences followed by Q&A sessions with the artistic team accompany each film. On Friday, the "Film Pitch and Catch" one to one meetings for projects will be occurred with pre-arrangement. There is a willingness to share film resources between China and USA, providing a way for filmmakers to meet future partners and share their deal making tips and insights.
